"Share The Gift" is a song about "love and charity" says, Young. "My wish is that the song and video will inspire others to help and share with others in need this holiday season. We shot the video in various locations throughout Mexico, and seeing the happy faces and voices when we brought them gifts will warm your hearts as it did mine. It's important to help others not only during the holiday season, but all year long. There are so many people hurting in the world, and whatever we can do to bring some sunshine into those in need, is a good thing for our world," says Drewin Young.
