"We are delighted to announce the opening of our new office," said President Brad Landin. "We attribute our rapid growth to the response from the market related to ESR's compliance technology, relentless client focus, and ability to serve our multi-national clients."

A significant catalyst contributing to their expansion can be attributed to their award-winning ESR Assured Compliance® Program, which helps U.S. employers manage their compliance obligations under local, state, and federal laws, and now General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) compliance as well for compliant screening programs in the European Union (EU).

"I'm grateful ESR can take this step forward and look to the many ways having such a space can help us better support our clients as well as our continued growth. We look forward to hosting visits, meetings, prospects, and clients," said Kirk Bogue, Vice President of Operations.
