SANTA MONICA, CA, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- LOS ANGELES, CA — September 7, 2026 — Recruiting for Good, a premier boutique recruitment firm known for its purpose-driven search model, today officially announced its newest community-focused incentive initiative. The value-driven staffing agency introduces a unique referral reward enabling professionals to gift curated travel celebrations while helping fund ‘The Sweetest Gigs’—a specialized youth mentorship program.

Dubbed ‘3 Days to Party,’ the innovative program allows well-connected professionals to transform standard corporate networking introductions into meaningful, bespoke travel gifts for loved ones, best friends, or significant others. Participants unlock exclusive milestone celebration packages simply by connecting hiring managers, executives, or HR leaders looking to hire professional talent with the agency’s placement team.

Most importantly, every successful placement helps provide vital funding for 'The Sweetest Gigs,' an impactful mentoring initiative dedicated to helping talented young girls develop essential life, business, and creative skills.

"Our travel reward program is reserved for values-driven professionals who love to share and gift meaningful experiences that improve loved ones' lives," says Carlos Cymerman, Founder of Recruiting for Good. "To appreciate referrals that enable us to fund our mentoring program for girls; professionals that successfully participate will earn a $3000 luxury Hotel Gift Card (credit with an expert travel advisor/partner, dedicated to design the perfect trip) to celebrate the Best 3 Day Festivals in the most beautiful European cities. Professionals may join The Brentwood Social Club LA for especially curated destinations; mixing cultural festivals, with signature celebrations."
