The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) Asks Attorney General Pam Bondi to Investigate the Campbell Soup Matter

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, December 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) is a coalition of 150,000 African American and Latino faith communities, comprising 27.7 million members, has sent a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and to the Hon. Brooke Rollins of the Department of Agriculture to see if Campbell Soup launch an investigation into Campbell's Soup regarding the possibility that it defrauded American consumers by lying about the quality of the ingredients used in its products.

> "All Americans, including NBCI's 27.7 members, have a right to know if any ingredients in Campbell Soup are harmful and unhealthy."
>
> Rev. Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative

The ingredients that former Campbell executive Martin Bally alleged are found in the company's products are both harmful and unhealthy. Rev. Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative, says, "All Americans, including NBCI's 27.7 members, have a right to know if any ingredients in Campbell Soup are harmful and unhealthy."

ABOUT NBCI

The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) is a coalition of 150,000 African American and Latino churches, comprising 27.7 million members, that works to eradicate racial disparities in healthcare, technology, education, housing, and the environment. NBCI's mission is to provide critical wellness information to all of its members, congregants, churches, and the public. The National Black Church Initiative's methodology utilizes faith and sound health science. We also offer our member congregants and the public helpful, science-based tips on developing and maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

Anthony Evans
National Black Church Initiative
+1 202-744-0184
email us here
Visit us on social media:
Instagram
Facebook

YouTube
TikTok
X

This press release can be viewed online at: https://www.einpresswire.com/article/874963393

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.
© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.