

Please Wake up to the Biggest Crime we Commit Against Our Children and Ourselves.

/EINPresswire.com/ We are the only experts of our kind. We have redefined the difference between brain and mind in our own unique manner; (If one googles, 'difference between brain and mind', we come up #1); We have also defined wisdom from our own unique perspective; resulting in dozens of new practical applications that are all our own, that improve everything from education to how we live our lives, and we have even invented a newer Wisdom-Industry. We have our own unique route to effectively teaching and mastering emotional intelligence.

Not only is current education for just half the brain, it even miseducate the brain. Now there is a lot of talk about teaching emotional intelligence, which is brain education; but we teach emotional intelligence through the mind and so it is not effective. No wonder current brain education is very frustrating and discouraging. Emotional intelligence is like a fragrance of the brain just like the fragrance of a flower. In order to improve the fragrance the plant has to be nurtured. Similarly it is the brain that has to be cleaned of all emotional baggage. The biggest miseducation we provide is brain washing our children that they are the best.

Please consider the following:

Adam and Eve are living a life of bliss. Both absorbed in living in the now. There is no self-awareness, no ambition, no greed. No sense of helplessness or dependency or thirst for power. There is no worry of any kind whatsoever. No desire to be the best or the greatest, they are innately happy, peaceful and relaxed. There is no fear of any kind, no jealousy or hatred. No idea of right and wrong, no need for rivalry or anger or competition. No idea of having less or more. In comes Satan and offers them the prospects of having the same knowledge as God; of they becoming #1. This one simple idea creates a titanic shift in the very being of Adam and Eve, They were living with just the attributes of wisdom and now after following Satan's advice they at once integrated the attributes of ignorance into their personalities. From fear, guilt, worry, ambition, greed, lust for power, restlessness, jealousy, self-centeredness, unhappiness, anger, competition and confusion etc. all became part of their personalities. They were still in heaven but their brains got loaded with the emotional baggage of hell. No wonder they were chased out of heaven as they were no longer fit for heaven.

Now let's consider a new born child. This new life brings new pleasures. The pleasures of breast sucking open spaces, cleanliness, of hugs and kisses, new tastes etc. The infant is totally absorbed in living life from moment to moment; basking in life with gay abandon. The infant's personality develops on the foundations of love, respect and trust so much so that the infant considers itself as one with the parent! All the ingredients of a wise personality are gradually integrated into the infant's brain. The infant starts out just as Adam and Eve started out in heaven. There is no self-awareness, no ambition, no greed. No sense of helplessness or dependency or thirst for power. There is no worry of any kind whatsoever. No desire to be the best or the greatest, there is innate happiness, peace and relaxation. There is no fear of any kind, no jealousy or hatred. No idea of right and wrong, no need for rivalry or anger or competition. No idea of having less or more. There is no emotional baggage.

Then the parents repeatedly brain wash the child with the belief that the child is the best. A titanic shift takes place in the emotional infrastructure of the child's brain. The child was gradually building up the foundations of wisdom and now it's brain gets loaded with the emotional baggage of all the attributes of ignorance. Fear, guilt, worry, ambition, greed, lust for power, restlessness, jealousy, self-centeredness, unhappiness, anger, competition and confusion etc. all became part of the child's personality. Instead of living in the now the child starts to look over its shoulder preparing for the future. Life becomes a struggle for out smarting everyone else. Studying becomes a secondary means to the main goal of becoming the best, instead of acquiring knowledge for its own sake. In one stroke the parents change the whole reality for the child; from a foundation of wisdom to a foundation of ignorance. From living the reality of life; to a make belief world of being #1.

At least Satan asks for action. He challenges Eve to stand up to God. To call God's "bluff" that eating the forbidden fruit is bad. Satan asks them to be daring, to break the law. While Satan asks for action on way to becoming #1; parents just integrate this huge bundle of emotional baggage into the brain of the child. We are worse than Satan for our kids; Satan told Adam and Eve that they could become #1 while we tell our children they are #1.

Parents and even society integrate this false belief that has a rippling effect on all life. Relationships get altered; false priorities take hold, crime, corruption and greed increase. Our relationships, our pleasures our life becomes partly phony. Society suffers from the emotionally challenged behavior on such a massive scale as a direct result of this one belief as it creates emotionally challenged brains.

Just this one belief of being the best is responsible for most of the current mess in the world. It is the biggest cause of tiredness, crime, illness and all the other messes of society. We have to launch a massive campaign to wake up the world to this huge blunder that we make in instilling the false belief of our child being the best. We have to instead make every child become the best through the right wisdom/emotional-intelligence education.

We are appealing to the new Obama administration to use the bully pulpit to awaken the whole world to this huge crime that we as a society, as parents and as teachers commit against our very own kin. This one action will change America far beyond President Obama's own hope and change promise.

We need all world leaders to pool their efforts to remove this emotional baggage creating false belief of being the best from being integrated into the physical infrastructure of our future generations and measures taken to remove this emotional baggage from the brains of all others; young and old. This campaign will not only remove much of the ills of society it will create a new world that is wise with emotionally super healthy brains.

We are appealing to President Obama, President Clinton, Hillary Clinton, Sheikha Moza, Bill Gates, Larry Page, Mark Zuckerberg, Queen Noor, Sonia Gandhi, Meera Gandhi, Cory Booker etc. to please join this campaign to make the world free of this emotional baggage.
