

The Conference Group Announces the Promotion of Karen Smythe

Award winning conferencing company congratulates employee on her new role as Director of Operations.

/EINPresswire.com/ NEWARK, Delaware - The Conference Group has proven time and time again that they take their clients' success seriously by offering newly developed advancements. The tech savvy company shows their eye for progression is not just for their clients, but stems from the inside out. As forerunners of delivering the latest technology, they also have a talent for spotting a job well done.

Karen Smythe's dedication, as well as 12 years of management and telecommunications experience, have earned her the role of Director of Operations. Social Media Coordinator, Karen Ruff, happily expresses "It's about time! We all knew that she was the best person for the job, and we are excited to see her put her skills to good use."

With a robust work morale, the staff is enthused to see the promotion of a colleague and manager. Karen's advancement expresses The Conference Group's overall drive to succeed on a public and internal level. Her budding desire to continually learn new responsibilities spanning the entire company was met unanimously.
