BermudAir is turning three years old with a 30% off sale

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BermudAir, the leading premium leisure carrier to Bermuda and the Caribbean, today announced a 30 percent discount* on published base fares on all routes from all gateways to celebrate the airline's third anniversary.

The discount is on sale from September 3-5, 2026, for travel from September 15 to November 15, 2026, when the promo code BIRTHDAY3 is used at check-out at www.flybermudair.com

Three years after operating its inaugural flight, BermudAir has grown from an ambitious start-up into an increasingly diversified aviation business, connecting Bermuda with key destinations across North America and the Caribbean while continuing to invest in the infrastructure, people and capabilities required to support its long-term growth.

That momentum was underscored by a particularly strong August, during which BermudAir achieved a 77.1% passenger load factor, reflecting continued growth in customer demand across the airline's expanding network.

At the same time, BermudAir continues to achieve exceptionally strong customer satisfaction results. The airline's Net Promoter Score (NPS) remains above 70, placing BermudAir among the world's leading companies for customer advocacy and providing a powerful indication of the loyalty and satisfaction of its customers.

"Reaching our third anniversary is an important moment for everyone at BermudAir, but what makes it particularly meaningful is that we are celebrating it while continuing to deliver strong growth and taking another major step forward as an airline," said Adam Scott, Founder & CEO at BermudAir. "With service now connecting Bermuda, Anguilla, Belize and Turks and Caicos, we're growing our network while continuing to raise the bar for the experience we offer our customers.
