

Cook to impress with Rangemaster Induction

/EINPresswire.com/ UK (submitpressrelease123.com - press release) The Rangemaster Professional+ 110 with induction hob top is perfect for budding chefs who want to create dishes to impress friends at dinner parties and get-togethers.

Available in 110cm and 90cm, induction cooking from Rangemaster allows the customer greater choice when it comes to cooking. Rangemaster induction means the customer can use a traditional style cooker, perfectly adapted to suit contemporary lifestyles.

Customers seeking performance with style will not be disappointed by the Professional+ with induction hob top. Designed to give a stylish and sleek look to any kitchen, the chunky dials and handles of this cooker, give a contemporary feel to this more traditional style of cooking.

With five cooking zones, the induction hob cooker is ideal for customers needing to cater for larger numbers of people. The handy pan detection system identifies when a pan is placed on the hob or taken away, and turns itself on or off accordingly, preserving energy and improving safety.

Other features include: boil dry detection, featuring automatic shut-down to prevent a pan from accidentally boiling dry, preserving both pan and cooker simultaneously; automatic sizing function, allowing the hob to accommodate a wide variety of pan sizes, ranging from 90mm – 240mm diameter; residual heat indicator, to warn that cooking surface is hot and should not be touched; rotary style controls to ensure precise temperature control; and child lock facilities to provide an extra safety feature.

Holly Johnson, Marketing Manager for Rangemaster said: "Induction cooking is very safe and energy efficient. With the Professional+ you can cook more precisely, resulting in dishes of an exceptional standard; perfect to impress friends."

Rangemaster has created the Professional+ with induction hob to enable customers finer precision and utmost style when cooking. Create high standard dishes, safely and efficiently with induction cooking.
