Cesar Arevalo Takes AzulNight Global With Birthday Journey Through Five Countries

AzulNight host will travel through Jordan, Malaysia, India, Singapore and Cambodia while producing new international content

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES, September 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Television host and entertainment producer Cesar Arevalo will mark his birthday with an international journey spanning five countries, traveling through Jordan, Malaysia, India, Singapore and Cambodia while developing new content for television and social media.

The journey will combine travel, entertainment and cultural experiences, with Arevalo documenting portions of the trip for his growing digital audience and for future AzulNight content.
According to Arevalo, the five destinations will also bring his personal travel history to more than 80 countries, adding another international milestone to a career that has taken him across television, entertainment and media.

A NEW CHAPTER FOR AZULNIGHT
Since the launch of AzulNight in 2010, Arevalo has built his television career around celebrity interviews, entertainment reporting and access to personalities from music and popular culture.
His work has included television appearances and interviews involving artists such as Sting, 50 Cent, Pitbull, Def Leppard, Imagine Dragons and Ellie Goulding. He also developed the Dancing Salsa with the Stars concept, creating entertainment segments in which he has danced salsa with celebrities including Camila Cabello and Ciara.
The upcoming trip extends that format beyond the television studio, placing travel and international experiences at the center of a new series of digital stories.

KUALA LUMPUR STOP AT PARK HYATT

In Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, Arevalo is scheduled to stay at Park Hyatt Kuala Lumpur, located within Merdeka 118.
Hyatt describes Park Hyatt Kuala Lumpur as occupying the upper floors of Merdeka 118, with guestrooms located on levels 100 through 112 and panoramic views of the Malaysian capital.
The hotel opened in August 2025 as the first Park Hyatt property in Malaysia.
The Kuala Lumpur portion of the journey will provide another setting for Arevalo's travel and lifestyle content.

INDIA EVENT TO FEATURE BAUME & MERCIER AND SHREYAS IYER

The itinerary will also take Arevalo to New Delhi, India, for an event connected to Swiss luxury watchmaker Baume & Mercier.
Indian cricket star Shreyas Iyer is also associated with the occasion. On August 21, 2026, Baume & Mercier officially announced Iyer as a Friend of the Maison, describing the cricketer as a representative of ambition, precision, character and excellence.

The Delhi stop adds another dimension to the journey, bringing together international entertainment, sport and luxury.

FIVE COUNTRIES AND NEW DIGITAL CONTENT

The itinerary through Jordan, Malaysia, India, Singapore and Cambodia will generate new photographs, videos and social media stories as Arevalo shares selected experiences from the journey.

Arevalo says his television and digital presence now reaches a combined audience of more than half a million followers and viewers.
For AzulNight, the journey represents an expansion of the program's storytelling beyond celebrity interviews and entertainment coverage, using international travel as a new setting for original content.

The five-country journey will also mark another milestone in Arevalo's international travels, as he continues to develop television and digital projects around entertainment, travel and popular culture.
