Rishikesh Yog Peeth, a registered school with Yoga Alliance, USA as RYS 200 & 500, announces its schedule for 200, 300 and 500-hour residential hatha yoga teacher training courses in 2013. It has been successfully conducting yoga teacher training programs in India since 2006. It has gained in popularity as one of the leading yoga schools in India because of the high standards it maintains in all departments. The fee is reasonable and includes all meals on campus as well as leisure and adventure activities on weekends. Rishikesh Yog Peeth conducts yoga courses in premises that are self-sustained and well equipped and all within the vicinity of the spiritual Ram Jhula locality of Rishikesh.

Yoga instructors at Rishikesh Yog Peeth have successfully formulated a simple method for teaching the ancient yogic wisdom in way that is easy for modern day yoga students to understand and apply to their lives. The teachers are steeped in tradition yet they are open minded enough to communicate yogic philosophy with a contemporary approach. The effectiveness of how well yoga is taught and practiced here can best be ascertained from the continual support it gets from former students who make return visits here repeatedly.

• “Our focus is on laying a sound foundation, based on authentic knowledge and practices so that students can grasp the principles that direct this amazing system. Then they can build on the same and explore the practice further with confidence and ease”, says Roshan Singh, founder president of Rishikesh Yog Peeth.
