"All of our windows, doors and siding materials have been ENERGY STAR rated to meet the highest standards available today."

The business was founded in 2007 to offer consumers a way to purchase the most energy-efficient home improvements for their homes without high pressure salesmen and overpricing, says Mark Horner.

Customer service is paramount to the Home Exteriors team. "Our company is based on the belief that our customers' needs are of the utmost importance," says Mark Horner. "Customer service is not just about before or during the job, it's about the lifetime that you own your home."

Clients are pleased, demonstrated not just by the Talk of the Town Customer Satisfaction Award, but also by the company's high number of repeat customers and referrals. "We have never had a consumer complaint in any venue," says Mark Horner. "This is an incredible record based on my 30 years of experience in the home improvement industry."
