Be one of the first people to take advantage of the ATT Uverse coupon codes that are on MoneyNing.com. Everyone knows that AT&T is one of the biggest names in media with their wildly popular U-Verse cable service, DSL Internet and wide selection of phones and plans for wireless. Their bundle packages are in high demand.

"AT&T realizes there is a lot of competition out there and they want to entice people to try their services," MoneyNing founder David Ning said. "They create special promotions and deals for people to use, but they aren't widely marketed. Far too many people sign up for services without taking advantage of these deals."

How MoneyNing.com Keeps Only Current Coupon Promos

Ning searches the Internet high and low looking for special offers and promotions and puts them on his website. Each of these ATT UVerse coupon codes and deals have been vetted by him. They are 100 percent reliable, and he posts them as soon as they are verified.

"Many of these deals are only available for a limited time, so it's imperative that they go up as soon as possible," Ning said. "It's a careful balance of verification and making sure items are timely."

The ATT UVerse coupon code is only available for people signing up at att.com. In essence, the company takes off the commission that a salesman would get for selling you the service through their promotional offers.

The page features promotions on the individual services and bundles. For example., the AT&T U-Verse TV and Internet Double Pack lets you get a great deal on the bundle and extra perks like a DVR.

Who May Use the ATT Uverse Coupon Codes?

It doesn't matter if the person checking out the codes is an existing customer or someone looking for a change, odds are there is something on the page for them. Ning has compiled one of the largest lists of ATT UVerse coupon codes available and did it so people can save money.

Times are tough and Ning realized that even saving a few dollars a month is worth taking the time and effort of compiling the information.

"I wanted people to know that they were getting the best deal possible for their services," Ning said. "Someone has to be out there looking out for people, and I am more than happy to take on that role."
