

Brand New Green Product Eliminates The Need For Car Washes

/EINPresswire.com/ Each day millions of people struggle to take good care of their vehicles. This includes washing their car in order to remove dirt and other road debris that cause rust and damage.

Aside from being expensive, going to a car wash also wreaks havoc on the environment. In fact, research indicates that washing one single vehicle uses at least 50 gallons of water. Fortunately, the manufacturers of All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax have a solution that requires no water, and no additional products.

The unprecedented reputation of All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax has made it an essential for business owners and individuals. Barry McAlpine from Harbor Auto Restoration states, "At Harbor Auto Restoration, we highly recommend All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax. We use it in our shop and at all of our national car shows on our high-end restorations with great results. It's silicone free and doesn't cause problems like other agents such as fish eyes, etc. All paint and body shops should have this product at their disposal. We even recommend it to our customers after their restored cars go home to keep that buffed shine look."

All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax is even used at car shows and the finest car dealerships. "I use All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax on the Lexus LFA at shows and at the dealership to protect its gloss and finish. I trust All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax on my lot, so can you on your car!" states Peter, a Lexus dealer lot manager.

All in One Carnauba Cleaner Wax effectively removes light dirt just as well as a water wash and can be used as a stand-alone car wax. Individuals that want to extend the life of their cars already realize that maintaining cleanliness is important. As clean water becomes less available, finding alternatives to remove dirt from your car is extremely important. With this product, a number of people are discovering that they don't need to use water and a host of expensive products to keep their cars clean of dirt and filth.
