

ElectronicCigarettesReviews.net Announces V2 Cigs Cartridge Giveaway And Big Holiday Savings

/EINPresswire.com/ ElectronicCigarettesReviews.net is giving away 175 assorted V2 Cigs cartridges this Christmas.

This holiday season, more shoppers than ever are buying electronic cigarettes. James Johnson of ElectronicCigarettesReviews.net (ECR), a popular electronic cigarettes reviews site, explains why e-cigs are such a popular gift. He says, "Electronic cigarettes provide so many advantages over traditional cigarettes that they are impossible to ignore." Electronic cigarettes create an inhalable water vapor that contains nicotine and flavoring. Because e-cigs don't burn, e-smokers are able to avoid the many harmful ingredients found in cigarettes while still getting the nicotine they crave.

Johnson continues, "Users of e-cigs also save thousands of dollars each year because of the low costs for refill cartridges." To help e-smokers save even more, ECR has teamed up with industry leader V2 Cigs for an exciting giveaway. When visitors to ElectronicCigarettesReviews.net activate a special coupon for 15% off any V2 starter kit and then purchase a kit, they will be eligible to win 35 free medium-strength V2 cartridges. Included in each package will be a five pack of each of the following flavors: V2 Cola, Cherry, Grape, Mint Tea, Peppermint, Coffee and Chocolate. Together, the cartridges value $69.65.

To enter the contest, customers must activate the coupon on ECR's Electronic Cigarettes Christmas Sale page and order a starter kit between December 18th and December 25th. For verification, they are asked to email their order number to admin@electroniccigarettesreviews.net with "V2 Cartridges Christmas Contest" in the subject line. Five winners will be chosen at random and will be notified if that they've won by December 28th.

V2 Cigs recently launched a new electronic cigarette brand specifically for women called Vapor Couture. While V2 Cigs make a perfect gift for men, ECR's team of editors and reviewers suggest Vapor Couture for women. For more information, shoppers are advised to read ECR's Vapor Couture Review.

Additionally, ECR has published a list of several holiday coupon codes and specials. One of the exciting holiday specials comes from White Cloud Electronic Cigarettes. White Cloud is a favorite at ECR's headquarters. They've consistently sold some of the highest quality e-cigs and accessories since opening in 2007. Early White Cloud reviews praised the company's products but complained about its substantially high starter kit costs. Over the past year White Cloud has slashed the prices on all of its products making them much more affordable for the common smoker. Further, over the holiday season, White Cloud is announcing several short sales reducing costs even further.

ECR's Christmas sales page will continue to be updated with any new e-cig sales and specials so visitors are urged to bookmark the page and check back.
