ROYAL PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, September 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Guaca Go, the South Florida–based fast-casual brand known for its Florida Fresh-Mex bowls and made-to-order guacamole, is now open in Royal Palm Beach, welcoming guests ahead of its official grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony at noon on National Guacamole Day, Wednesday, September 16.

The Royal Palm Beach restaurant is locally owned and operated by Fab Nunez and Jessie Sequeira, the same franchise owners behind Guaca Go Tequesta, which opened to strong community turnout earlier this year. The new location marks the pair's second Guaca Go restaurant and the brand's fourth in Palm Beach County — a growth step that takes the brand west, into Royal Palm Beach, Wellington and the surrounding communities.

"Opening in Tequesta showed us exactly what this community responds to: fresh food, real hospitality, and a brand that shows up for its neighborhood," said Fab Nunez and Jessie Sequeira. "Royal Palm Beach is the next step for us and we could not be more excited for our grand opening on National Guacamole Day."

Located at 10101 Southern Boulevard, Unit 190, Royal Palm Beach, FL 33411, the restaurant is open daily from 11am to 8pm and serves the full Guaca Go Florida Fresh-Mex menu: chef-driven bowls, burritos, salads and Build-Your-Own options made with clean, gluten-free, vegan-friendly and seed-oil-free ingredients — all built around the brand's signature guacamole, mashed fresh to order in front of guests.

Guaca Go will celebrate its grand opening with a week of community-focused promotions:

-Grand Opening Day – National Guacamole Day, Wednesday, Sept 16: $5 bowls from 12 to 3 p.m. Ribbon cutting ceremony occurs at noon.

-Giveback Day – Thursday, Sept 17: $1 from every bowl, burrito or salad donated to Roots and Wings, a local nonprofit that provides free literacy instruction to over 1,600 students in 24 Title I elementary schools throughout Palm Beach County.

-Community Appreciation Day – Friday, Sept 18: First responders, nurses, teachers and students receive 50% off in-store all day.

Guaca Go was founded by married entrepreneurs Carson and Amber Bennett, who launched the brand as a roadside guacamole stand in the Florida Keys before growing it into a Palm Beach County favorite with restaurants in West Palm Beach, Delray Beach and Tequesta.

"Watching Fab and Jessie bring Guaca Go to Tequesta and now to Royal Palm Beach has been incredibly rewarding," said co-founder Carson Bennett. "They understood our vision from day one, and this second location is proof of what happens when the right partners believe in what you're building."

In addition to its restaurants, Guaca Go is a familiar presence at major South Florida sporting and cultural events, including the South Florida Fair, the Delray Beach Open, the Cognizant Classic, spring training at Roger Dean Stadium, the Miami Open and Formula 1 weekend in Miami.

About Guaca Go
Founded in 2017, Guaca Go began as a South Florida catering and events concept built around one simple idea: guacamole should be made fresh daily and served as the star of the meal. After quickly gaining a loyal following, founders Carson and Amber Bennett opened the brand's first brick-and-mortar restaurant in 2020. Guaca Go now operates four locations across Palm Beach County — West Palm Beach, Delray Beach, Tequesta and Royal Palm Beach. Known for its house-made guacamole, clean ingredients and fully customizable bowls, the brand offers gluten-free, vegan and seed-oil-free options, all delivered with fast service and a fun, Florida-inspired vibe.
