Salsa Kings® Offers Group Dance Lessons in Cutler Bay, Florida

Miami-based Salsa Kings® brings beginner-friendly group salsa classes to Cutler Bay, with free first classes and a community-focused approach.

CUTLER BAY, FL, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Salsa Kings®, a Miami-based salsa dance studio founded in 1998, now offers group dance lessons in Cutler Bay, Florida. The classes, which specialize in Casino-style salsa (commonly known as Cuban-style salsa), welcome participants of all experience levels, including complete beginners who have no prior dance experience.

The Cutler Bay group classes are structured around partner rotation, meaning participants dance with different partners throughout each session. According to the studio, this format allows attendees to meet new people and build connections regardless of whether they arrive solo, with a friend, or with a partner.

Salsa Kings® operates under the mission of helping people build relationships and exercise interpersonal connection through Latin dance. The studio describes its approach with the motto #BetterTogether, reflecting its emphasis on community over individual performance. Beyond weekly classes, the studio offers workshops, social events, VIP events, dance groups, and an annual Salsa Cruise.

"At Salsa Kings, it's not just about learning steps—it's about community, connection, and joy. Whether someone is a complete beginner or looking to take their dancing to the next level, they'll find a home here," said Mr. Andres, Owner of Salsa Kings®.

The Cutler Bay salsa classes do not require previous dance experience, rhythm, or a partner. Participants learn alongside other students, rotate partners during class, and practice together in a group setting. The studio recommends comfortable clothing that allows easy movement, along with sneakers or comfortable dance shoes.

Salsa Kings® offers a free first class for new participants, allowing them to experience the studio's teaching style and community atmosphere before making a commitment. The studio serves adults across multiple cities in South Florida, including Miami, Cooper City, Doral, Homestead, Kendall, Miami Lakes, and Weston, spanning both Miami-Dade County and Broward County.

Salsa Kings® was originally founded by Elba, who emigrated from Cuba and recognized that Miami—despite its cultural proximity to Cuba—lacked dedicated salsa academies at the time. The studio has since grown under the leadership of Andres Fernandez, who serves as owner and director and brings over 20 years of experience in salsa and the dance industry. Fernandez is supported by a leadership team that includes Rafael Valle, Tanya Soto, Mike Osborne, Cassandra Malanche, Pablo Peña, and Galo Paredes.

Students have shared their experiences with the studio's approach. Kirsten V., a client, stated: "Awesome instructors taking us on advanced lessons of son Cubano and musicality - great level of difficulty for a few bay area dancers visiting Miami. Also there was a fabulous guest instructor. We had an awesome time!"

The studio's community-oriented model extends beyond the classroom. Regular social events and gatherings give students opportunities to practice what they learn in class in a relaxed, social setting. Client J C described the experience: "Andres, the instructor, brings an energy and passion for salsa that is infectious. It doesn't matter if you are day one of dancing or a pro. You should stop by for a great time."
