Formerly a small fishing village in the Bali south coast, Seminyak still maintains that Balinese small town feel with its deeply rooted traditions. One can watch locals perform ceremonies of offerings to the gods at the beach against a fabulous sunset backdrop and gamelan music background.

Seminyak has evolved into the current Indonesian handicraft business centre and a sophisticated beach town boasting high end restaurants and fashionable clothing shops. It is known for the distinctly upmarket style of its parties and entertainment. Here the sunglasses are designer and the drink is champagne. This capital of glitz is where local designers flock to set up boutiques making it a haven for fashionistas and a showcase for haute couture.

Seminyak nightlife features an eclectic collection of stylish open air cafes and bars where the beautiful people flock to wine and dine amidst beautiful twinkling candles and hypnotic house beats.
