Tempe's IGO Dental & Implant Center Named 2026 Dentist of the Year

IGO Dental & Implant Center earns Consumer Ratings Institute's 2026 Dentist of the Year for Tempe, backed by a 4.9-star rating across 1,174 patient reviews.

TEMPE, AZ, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IGO Dental & Implant Center, a Tempe practice offering implants, general dentistry, and orthodontics under one roof, is led by a family of three dentists: Dr. Han Choi, Dr. Jae Choi, and Dr. Hanna Choi. Dr. Han Choi, the practice's Chief Implantologist and a Diplomate of the American Board of Oral Implantology, previously managed 10 dental clinics across Texas and New Mexico and trained more than 30 dentists before relocating to Arizona to return to direct, hands-on patient care. Dr. Jae Choi, is a Board Certified Orthodontist who trained at NYU and the Arizona School of Dentistry & Oral Health. Dr. Hanna Choi rounds out the family team as the practice's general dentist.

The practice has grown to include additional dentists and hygienists, including Dr. Kevin Lee, a former military public health dentist, and Dr. Calvin Brown Jr., who has practiced implant and restorative dentistry for more than 20 years across five states. Among its services, IGO offers screwless dental implants, an alternative technique to traditional implant hardware.

"A lot of practices grow by opening more locations. We grew by keeping it in the family and doing more under one roof — implants, orthodontics, general care — so patients aren't bounced between offices," said Dr. Han Choi, Chief Implantologist at IGO Dental & Implant Center. "When your name is on the door, you take care of every patient like they're going to run into you at the grocery store."

IGO Dental & Implant Center was also named Dentist of the Year for Tempe by the Consumer Ratings Institute, reflecting a 4.9-star rating across 1,174 patient reviews.
