"Every location we welcome into VIVE represents an opportunity to earn the trust of another community," said Vartan Jerian, Jr., CEO and Founder of VIVE Collision. "In Concord, that means being there for people when an accident disrupts their lives, communicating clearly, and delivering repairs they can feel confident in. We're excited to welcome Above All Collision to the VIVE family and support the team with the resources and training to succeed."

VIVE's approach combines local service with the support of a broader collision repair network. Through ongoing technical training, shared expertise, and operational support, the company equips its teams to meet the demands of today's increasingly complex vehicles while keeping the customer experience at the center of the repair process.

For drivers in Concord and surrounding communities, Above All Collision Center Powered by VIVE offers complete collision repair services and insurance claim assistance, backed by a lifetime warranty. These services reflect VIVE's focus on helping customers navigate the steps following an accident and return to the road with confidence.

The acquisition continues VIVE Collision's growth across the Northeast, strengthening a network focused on investing in its people, supporting the communities it serves, and raising expectations for the collision repair experience.
