NEW YORK METROPOLITAN AREA, NY, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EZ Pawn Corp, a family-owned and operated pawnshop serving communities across the New York metropolitan area, is announcing two significant milestones: a new partnership with the Provident Loan Society and a national award recognizing its owner as Pawnbroker of the Year. For residents across New York City, Queens, Brooklyn, and the Bronx who need immediate cash loans on collateral, EZ Pawn Corp has long been a trusted option. These latest developments mark a new chapter for the business, which has served the region across three generations of family ownership.

The partnership with the Provident Loan Society, also known as PLS, means that EZ Pawn Corp will take over all existing loans that PLS customers currently hold. Customers who had active loans through PLS can now continue managing their loans through EZ Pawn Corp. This transition gives those customers access to EZ Pawn Corp's 19 locations spread across New York City, Queens, Brooklyn, and the Bronx. For anyone already familiar with PLS, the move to EZ Pawn Corp brings continuity and a well-established local presence.

The owner of EZ Pawn Corp, David, was recently named Pawnbroker of the Year by the National Pawnbrokers Association, commonly referred to as the NPA. This prestigious national award reflects the standard of service and business conduct that EZ Pawn Corp has maintained through years of operation and three generations of family leadership. The recognition signals to customers and community members throughout the New York metropolitan area that they are doing business with an award-winning professional in the industry.

EZ Pawn Corp's core service is straightforward. Customers bring in items of value and receive immediate cash loans using those items as collateral. When the loan is repaid, the customer gets their item back. This type of lending has long served blue-collar workers and working families who need quick access to cash. For communities across Brooklyn, the Bronx, Queens, and Manhattan, this kind of direct financial service addresses a practical need.

The business pays top dollar for gold, diamonds, silver, watches, musical instruments, and other items of value. Customers who prefer to sell outright rather than take a loan also have that option. Whether someone has inherited jewelry, a watch they no longer wear, or a musical instrument, EZ Pawn Corp evaluates the item and offers a fair payout on the spot. This service works well for people who want fast cash without the obligation of repaying a loan.

With 19 locations across the New York metropolitan area, EZ Pawn Corp maintains a substantial presence. Having branches spread across New York City, Queens, Brooklyn, and the Bronx means that customers in many different neighborhoods have a location nearby. Whether someone needs a cash loan in the Bronx or wants to sell a piece in Brooklyn, there is likely an EZ Pawn Corp location within reach.

EZ Pawn Corp has deep roots in the communities it serves. As a family-owned and operated business now in its third generation, the company understands the people it works with. The business has built its reputation by treating customers fairly and offering competitive value in exchange for their items. Community involvement has always been part of how EZ Pawn Corp operates, and that approach has carried the business through multiple generations.

"It's easy to pawn or sell with EZ Pawn Corp," said David of EZ Pawn Corp.

That message reflects the business's straightforward approach. Whether a customer is new to pawning or has visited EZ Pawn Corp before, the process is designed to be simple and fair.
