ALPHARETTA, GA, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Northside Plastic Surgery is proud to announce that both of its plastic surgeons, Mike Majmundar, MD, and Shreyas Makwana, MD, have been named to Atlanta Magazine's 2026 Top Doctors list. The dual recognition reflects the collective expertise of the practice and marks the 18th consecutive year that a Northside Plastic Surgery physician has received the prestigious honor.

Having both physicians included on this year's list represents an important milestone for Northside Plastic Surgery and reinforces the practice's reputation as a leading destination for aesthetic surgery in Atlanta and beyond.

"We are incredibly proud to have both physicians recognized this year," said Dr. Majmundar, founder of Northside Plastic Surgery. "Although the award recognizes individual physicians, we view it as an acknowledgment of our entire practice. Every member of our team plays a role in providing the thoughtful, personalized care and exceptional experience our patients expect."

Patients travel to Northside Plastic Surgery from across the United States and six continents for surgical and nonsurgical aesthetic care. Founded by Dr. Majmundar, the practice combines the expertise of nationally recognized plastic surgeons with advanced technology, comprehensive treatment options, and a highly personalized approach to patient care.

Northside Plastic Surgery is located in an 18,000-square-foot facility designed to provide patients with comfort, luxury, discretion, and convenience throughout their aesthetic journey. The facility houses an AAAASF-accredited outpatient surgery center, the plastic surgery practice, a medical spa, a dedicated 3D imaging center, a hyperbaric oxygen retreat, and a physician training center. It also offers a private VIP entrance and a dedicated space designed specifically for male patients.

The practice provides a full range of surgical, minimally invasive, and nonsurgical aesthetic procedures. Signature surgical offerings include the Natural Facelift, Natural Deep Plane Facelift, Deep Plane Neck Lift, eyelid lift, rhinoplasty, lip lift, breast augmentation, breast lift, liposuction 360, HD liposuction, mommy makeover, and tummy tuck.

Nonsurgical services include cosmetic injectables, laser procedures, skin-tightening treatments, threads, fat-reduction technology, and plastic surgeon-supervised medical spa treatments. With more than $1 million invested in advanced aesthetic devices, the practice can create individualized treatment plans incorporating preventive, nonsurgical, minimally invasive, and surgical options.

Recognized as a 'Center of Excellence', procedures performed at Northside Plastic Surgery's on-site surgery center are supported by the practice's own experienced nurses and surgical technicians, along with board-certified physician anesthesiologists who remain with patients throughout their procedures.

"This recognition reflects our shared commitment to achieving natural-looking results while providing patients with an experience that is safe, comfortable, and highly individualized," said Dr. Makwana. "It is an honor to be recognized alongside Dr. Majmundar and the exceptional team at Northside Plastic Surgery."

The annual Atlanta Magazine Top Doctors list recognizes physicians across the metropolitan Atlanta area who have earned the confidence and respect of their medical peers. Inclusion on the list has become a trusted resource for patients seeking experienced and highly regarded physicians throughout the region.
