

Monster Insurance Acquires Renewal Rights for OneBeacon Energy Book

/EINPresswire.com/ New Facility Expands Workers' Compensation, General Liability and Auto Capacity

MarketScout, the national electronic insurance exchange and specialty MGA with headquarters in Dallas, Texas, today announced that Monster Insurance has entered into an agreement with OneBeacon Insurance Company to determine if any of the energy casualty policies previously written by OneBeacon are acceptable for placement in Monster's Energy division.

"Monster Insurance will offer general liability, auto and workers' compensation lines of coverage to insured's who were insured by OneBeacon's casualty energy offering," said Richard Kerr, CEO of MarketScout, Monster's parent company. Kerr also made clear, "Our plan is to offer alternatives on existing OneBeacon policies only via those agents and wholesale brokers who are currently named as agent of record."
