Dr. Lydia Roxborough Appointed CEO of Lydian Memorial

Dr. Roxborough will lead Lydian Memorial's mission to preserve legacies through compassionate service, quality craftsmanship, and innovation.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA, September 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lydian Memorial is proud to announce the appointment of Dr. Lydia Roxborough as Chief Executive Officer, leading the company as it prepares to deliver high-quality memorial products, personalized engraving, and custom signage to families and businesses throughout Jamaica.

As CEO, Dr. Roxborough will oversee Lydian Memorial's strategic direction, financial management, business development, community partnerships, and long-term expansion. Her leadership will focus on building a trusted Jamaican company recognized for compassion, craftsmanship, innovation, and exceptional customer service.

Dr. Roxborough holds a Doctorate in Business Administration with a specialization in Finance. Her experience in business leadership and organizational development will help guide Lydian Memorial as it expands its products and services while maintaining the personal care families deserve during life's most meaningful moments.

"Lydian Memorial was created to help people preserve the memories, legacies, and moments that matter most," said Dr. Roxborough. "It is an honor to lead this company and build an organization that serves families with compassion, integrity, dignity, and excellence."

Lydian Memorial specializes in personalized granite memorials and laser-engraved products. The company is also expanding its services to include custom business signs and other personalized products created using advanced engraving and CNC technology.

Under Dr. Roxborough's leadership, Lydian Memorial is committed to creating employment opportunities, investing in modern production capabilities, supporting the local community, and establishing a lasting standard of excellence within Jamaica’s memorial and custom-signage industries.

Every Moment Matters.
