Fares for the new itinerary start from €2,675 per person, with an inclusive package designed to offer exceptional value. Guests will enjoy comfortable accommodation onboard, all meals throughout the cruise, and house drinks included with lunch and dinner.

The itinerary also features a selection of included excursions, allowing guests to explore some of Europe's most celebrated destinations with expert local guidance. Included experiences comprise City Tours of Budapest and Vienna as well as walking tours of Cologne and Bamberg.

The new Amsterdam to Belgrade itinerary has been designed to combine cultural immersion, historic discovery and scenic cruising, showcasing the diverse landscapes and traditions that make European river cruising so popular with travellers.

“This new itinerary represents an exciting addition to our 2027 programme,” said Alexei Prokhorov, CEO of Crucemundo.

Amsterdam, the starting point for Crucemundo's new Grand European River Cruise itinerary

“By connecting Amsterdam and Belgrade in a single voyage, we are offering guests the opportunity to experience the very best of the Rhine and Danube rivers while enjoying the comfort, value and inclusive experience that Crucemundo is known for. We continue to see growing demand for longer, destination-rich river cruises, and this itinerary delivers exactly that.”

Highlights of the journey include cruising through the picturesque Rhine Valley, exploring the imperial grandeur of Vienna, discovering the vibrant culture of Budapest, and experiencing the charm of historic towns such as Cologne and Bamberg.

The cruise further strengthens Crucemundo’s commitment to providing accessible and affordable river cruising across Europe, with carefully curated itineraries that combine authentic local experiences with outstanding value.

The Amsterdam to Belgrade sailing is now on sale.
