

Parcel2Go backing small businesses for 2013

/EINPresswire.com/ UK (submitpressrelease123.com - press release) Bolton-based parcel delivery specialist Parcel2Go has welcomed the findings of a new survey which points to a rise in confidence levels among small business owners.

The Federation of Small Businesses' latest quarterly survey pointed to increasing optimism and suggested that more firms will look to invest in 2013. The survey also found that companies across the UK are having to deal with rising costs, and Parcel2Go has urged all businesses to review their current domestic and international parcel delivery arrangements to see whether savings can be made.

As the UK's largest online parcel delivery specialist, Parcel2Go helps companies and private individuals to send more than two million packages around the world every year with leading couriers. Many thousands of individual consignments are sent within the UK and to international destinations each day, while those with multiple parcels can be catered for just as easily. For firms with e-commerce websites, Parcel2Go offers an Application Programming Interface, which businesses can incorporate into their existing site, giving customers instant access to cheap parcel delivery services.

Richard Mercer, marketing director at Parcel2Go, said: "For decades, Parcel2Go has been lending businesses a helping hand when it comes to lowering overheads, and there has never been a more important time for firms to look again at their shipping methods and source cheaper alternatives.

"Services available through Parcel2Go range from economy services, which cost just a few pounds, to international shipping, pallet delivery and same day delivery options. Regardless of the needs of a particular company, we're sure to be able to offer a reliable, low-cost delivery solution."

Parcel2Go's services can all be booked online and a quick quote function is featured on the company's homepage, making it simple to get a price in a matter of seconds.
