

LowVig.com Offers -105 Odds on the First Game of the NFL Divisional Playoffs

/EINPresswire.com/ America's Favorite Reduced Juice Sportsbook Has Posted Discounted Lines on One of The Most Highly Anticipated Games of the NFL Post Season.

Tomorrow marks the beginning of the NFL divisional playoffs which kickoff at 4:30 Eastern Time with a monumental matchup between the Baltimore Ravens and the seemingly unstoppable Denver Broncos. Denver's star quarterback Peyton Manning hopes to take his team all the way to the Superbowl after transforming them into an offensive powerhouse that has won its last 11 consecutive games.

Ravens fans are banking on running back Ray Rice to pull it together and beat the Broncos defense, despite having had what he himself has described as a mediocre season. If Rice falls short, the chances that Joe Flacco can outperform Manning are slim at best.

With less than 24 hours to go until game time, most online sportsbooks have already begun fielding a heavy number of wagers and the money seems to be pouring in from all over the web on both sides of this event. Denver is the clear favorite at -9, however pricing on this game is all over the place. While most sportsbooks are currently listing the game at -110 each way, a number of major online betting sites have the Broncos listed at -9 (+100) with a +9(-120) comeback on the Ravens. The opening line on the event was Denver -9½ (+100), so it isn't any wonder many odds makers still have the Broncos listed at even money, even if most of them have dropped the half point.

Nevertheless, while the majority of the major sportsbooks are using a standard 20 cent line on this event, LowVig is staying true to its 'Simply Better Value' guarantee by offering players a chance to get in on the action at a fraction of the cost. LowVig currently has Denver listed as a 9 point favorite with the pricing set at -105 each way. With only a few games to go before the superbowl, this may be one of the last great deals of the 2012-2013 season, which explains why inside sources have indicated that there seems to be an inordinately high volume of action being placed on this particular event at LowVig.com.

This probably comes as no surprise to seasoned handicappers, however, who realize the type of special edge a 10 cent football line can give them.

About LowVig.com

LowVig was officially launched in 2011, with a 'Simply Better Value' guarantee expressed through "reduced juice" sports betting, horse rebates, poker rakeback and casino play rebates paid daily. The company offers a cost saving guarantee because LowVig prefers to return as much value possible to each individual bettor via the rebate and reduced juice model rather than through lower ROI methods, such as expensive advertising campaigns, affiliate deals, or costly promotions; thereby preferring organic growth through word of mouth advertising from their rapidly increasing client base.
