

Royal Vegas is taking part in the International Casino Games again this year

/EINPresswire.com/ Loyal players at Royal Vegas online casino are in for a treat as the casino brings back the International casino games and more chances to win tickets in board this luxury cruise liner.

The International Casino games are one of the leading online casino promotions, hosted by Fortune Lounge all casinos in this group are able to participate. Players at any of the Fortune Lounge casinos can try and win tickets and get on board a luxury exotic cruise and win big prizes whilst on board.

Royal Vegas is one of these casinos and loyal players at this online casino have been trying to win tickets since November, but don't worry there is still two more months of prizes to be won before all tickets have been handed out. In one of the longest promotions run Royal Vegas has successfully drawn in players to take part in some easy promotions and some not so easy promotions all in hopes of winning double tickets to the International Casino games.

November was a month when players needed to fill up a cruise card in order to try and win tickets. With every deposit made players were given chips and the chips would help to fill the card once a line was completed players would earn bonuses prizes and once the card was completed they would go into a lucky draw for the cruise tickets.

December saw players heading to the beach on a treasure hunt. Every day players were able to log in and head over to the island screen which was covered in secret gifts. Players would get one chance to select a gift revealing what was inside, players stood the chance of winning, free spins, casino credits, reward points, deposit match bonuses and of course double cruise tickets.

For the month of January Royal Vegas Casino has created their own unique slot game where players can win great prizes. Each week players will need to qualify for a chance at spinning the Island Reels, qualification could be a certain deposit amount or playing a certain game. Once the reels have been spun players will know what they have won and hopefully it will be tickets to the international casino games.

Royal Vegas is keeping tight lipped about their February promotion and for that month they will be running a mystery promo but the prize is clear, again players can try and win tickets to the International Casino Games.

All casinos in the Fortune Lounge Group will be offering tickets to this heavenly cruise where players can try and win over a million in prizes.
