

PRI Named Medical Professional Liability Insurer for Parker Jewish Inst. for Health Care & Rehab of New Hyde Park

/EINPresswire.com/ For IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

(Roslyn, LI- January 15th, 2013)--Physicians' Reciprocal Insurers (PRI) is pleased to announced that Parker Jewish Institute for Health Care and Rehabilitation of New Hyde Park, New York has named PRI to serve as its medical professional liability insurer.

Parker Jewish Institute is one of the nation's preeminent long term care facilities. It offers sub-acute care/post acute care, short term rehabilitation, a nursing home, a comprehensive network of community health programs and services, and medical transportation. On-site dialysis is provided at Parker by the Queens-Long Island Renal Institute, Inc. Anthony Bonomo, PRI's Chief Executive Officer, said: "Parker is one of the metropolitan area's leaders in long term care. They work diligently to treat their patients and residents with dignity and respect, and their results are impressive."

Lenny Tanzer, Chairman of Parker's Board of Trustees, and Michael N. Rosenblut, Parker's President and Chief Executive Officer, remarked that PRI was selected as its partner for medical professional liability insurance based upon PRI's 30 year track record in risk management and claims management. "We are pleased to join the PRI family of insureds and look forward to working closely with PRI on quality care initiatives," they said.

PRI is the second largest medical professional liability company in New York State, serving over 13,000 physicians and several hundred facilities since 1982. They have been formally recognized for their groundbreaking initiatives in risk management.
