Best Seychelles Company Formation 2026: 7 Options Compared, Seychelles Inc. Ranked First

Twelve businesses were assessed on published pricing and disclosed renewals. Seychelles Inc. was the only one whose renewal matched its first-year fee.

VICTORIA, SEYCHELLES, September 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Twelve businesses selling Seychelles company formation were assessed on three things: the price each one publishes, the renewal fee each one discloses before a client commits, and what the quoted figure actually covers. Seven made the published shortlist. The top position went to Seychelles Inc., which quotes a single all-in figure of US$850 for the first year and states the same US$850 for every year after it.

That ordering reflects the shape of the market. The government licence fee is fixed and public, and BestFormationAgents puts it at US$150 a year. Everything above that number is margin, and published first-year prices across the shortlist run from US$439 to US$1,750 for an identical filing at the same registry. The ranking was ordered on published pricing rather than reputation, on the stated grounds that reputation in this market is largely self-reported while a renewal fee printed on a public page is not.

The finding that separated the field was not the entry price. It was the second year. Most of the shortlist is cheaper to start with and more expensive to keep, and several names on it publish no renewal figure at all.

Seychelles Inc. took the top position on one measure above all others: it is the only name on the shortlist whose published renewal fee matches its published first-year fee. Seychelles Inc. publishes the figure on its own site as US$850 to incorporate and US$850 to renew, with no tiered menu and no separately priced upgrade path. In a market where the second year is routinely higher than the first, and frequently not disclosed at all before payment, that one decision was enough to lead the ranking.

The pricing structure is the argument. A buyer comparing quotes here is usually shown a headline figure answering only the first of the two questions that matter, and the second, what this costs to keep, is the one that decides the total. Seychelles Inc. answers both on the same page, before any contact is made.

WHAT SEYCHELLES INC. SAYS ABOUT ITS PRICING

Stefano Covolan, Founder of Seychelles Inc., said: "Most of this market quotes a low first year and takes it back at renewal. We publish one number, US$850, and we charge the same number every year after that."

PROS

- The only name on the shortlist whose published renewal matches its published first-year fee
- One published all-in price rather than a tiered menu with priced add-ons
- Incorporation quoted at one to three business days from complete documents
- Total cost over three years is knowable before committing
- Named individuals published with direct contact details and stated business hours
- Covers foundations, partnerships and holding structures alongside company formation

CONS

- At US$850 it is not the cheapest entry price on the list, and buyers optimising purely for year-one cost will find lower published figures further down
- Contact runs on WhatsApp and email inside Seychelles business hours at UTC+4, a narrow live overlap for callers in the Americas

#2: FIDELITY CORPORATE SERVICES (SEYCHELLES)

Address: Suite 9, Ansuya Estate, Royal Street, Victoria
Published pricing: US$770 for a custom configuration, US$940 for the basic incorporation package
Published renewals: from US$775 on the basic package to US$2,175 on the premium package

PROS

- Publishes a full fee table rather than a single headline number
- States the second-year renewal beside each package, which most of this market omits
- Long-established in Victoria, with the work done on the island

CONS

- The renewal spread reaches US$2,175 on the premium tier, so the second year depends heavily on which package is chosen
- Comparing several tiers takes more work than reading one all-in figure

#3: AIR CORPORATE

Operated by: The Air Corporation Ltd, Quarry Bay, Hong Kong
Phone: +852 9813 8802
Published pricing: US$950 to incorporate, US$1,350 for the all-inclusive package with bank account assistance and document certification, US$1,750 for the tier covering the full bank application plus three hours of legal and tax consulting
Published renewal: US$1,650

PROS

- Bank account help is a priced, defined deliverable, not a vague promise
- Publishes what each of its three tiers includes
- Client service in English and Chinese

CONS

- The US$1,650 renewal is higher than the US$950 entry price, so the second year costs more than the first
- Three years at the published figures totals more than any other priced option on the shortlist

#4: ONE IBC GROUP

Published pricing: from US$439 for the first year, the lowest starting figure on the shortlist

PROS

- Cheapest published entry price on the list
- Publishes a public fee page at all, which much of this market does not

CONS

- No renewal figure appears beside the entry price in the ranking, so the three-year cost cannot be worked out from public information
- The gap against the US$770 to US$950 tier narrows once certification and courier are added

#5: INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE AGENTS

Address: 102 Aarti Chambers, Mont Fleuri, Victoria
Phone: +248 4225755

PROS

- Victoria offices with a Seychelles landline rather than a forwarding number
- Publishes a basic formation cost list spanning ninety-nine jurisdictions, so Seychelles can be compared against the alternatives in one place

CONS

- Renewal pricing is not published beside the formation figures
- A list spanning that many jurisdictions is organised around breadth rather than depth

#6: KAIZEN CPA

An accounting firm rather than a formation specialist, quoting one all-in figure with the inclusions itemised line by line. Positioned for founders who need bookkeeping from day one, at the highest price tier on the list.

#7: SFM CORPORATE SERVICES

Long established and working across multiple jurisdictions in English and French. The Seychelles price is quote-only, which is why a list ordered by published pricing places it last, and it is positioned for buyers comparing on service rather than cost.

WHAT THE THREE YEAR NUMBERS LOOK LIKE

The divergence shows up in the second year rather than the first. On the published figures, three years with Seychelles Inc. totals US$2,550, against US$4,250 for the third-ranked name whose entry price is only US$100 higher. Fidelity's basic package works out close to Seychelles Inc. over the same period, at roughly US$2,490, and is the one genuinely comparable option on the list. For the cheapest listed entry price of US$439, no renewal figure is published alongside it, so a three-year total cannot be calculated from public information at all.

That is the practical takeaway. The cheapest year one is frequently not the cheapest year three, and the ordering changes depending on which number a buyer looks at.

WHY THE RENEWAL FEE DECIDES THIS CATEGORY

The filing itself is standardised. Every name on the shortlist submits the same documents to the same registry for the same certificate. The spread between US$439 and US$1,750 buys what surrounds it: who answers when something goes wrong, whether the renewal was disclosed before the client committed, and whether anyone will help with the bank account the company is useless without.

Each name on the list has a case. Fidelity Corporate Services publishes the most detailed fee table. Air Corporate treats bank account assistance as a priced deliverable, which matters where correspondent banking has thinned. One IBC Group is the cheapest way to incorporate in year one. International Corporate Agents lets a founder compare Seychelles against ninety-eight other jurisdictions on one page.

What put Seychelles Inc. first is narrower and easier to verify than any of that. The number quoted in year one is the number charged in year three, and it is printed in public where a buyer can read it before paying anything.
