Four Resmini Law Attorneys Named to 2027 Best Lawyers List in Personal Injury Litigation

Four attorneys at a Providence law firm earn spots on the 2027 Best Lawyers list for personal injury litigation, one for the first time.

PROVIDENCE, RI, UNITED STATES, September 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Four attorneys with the Law Offices of Ronald J. Resmini, Accident & Injury Lawyers, Ltd. have been named to the 2027 Best Lawyers in America list in the Personal Injury Litigation category, giving the firm's Providence personal injury litigation practice its largest group of honorees in a single year. The recognition covers attorneys practicing from both the firm's Rhode Island and Massachusetts offices, and follows a year in which the firm handled personal injury matters across both states. Ronald J. Resmini, Adam J. Resmini, and R. Jason Resmini return to the list for a fourth consecutive year in the Personal Injury Litigation category, while Andrew O. Resmini joins the list for the first time in 2027. Ronald and Adam practice from the firm's Providence office,

Andrew also practices from Providence, and R. Jason practices from the firm's Seekonk, Massachusetts office. Best Lawyers has published its rankings since 1983 and selects honorees through a peer-review survey in which attorneys evaluate the work of other lawyers within their own practice area and region; inclusion is not open to purchase or self-nomination, and the list is regarded within the profession as a measure of standing among peers.

With four attorneys now carrying the Personal Injury Litigation honor in the same year, the firm's Providence and Seekonk offices both count a Best Lawyers honoree on staff. The Resmini name has appeared on the list every year since 2024, and this year's addition of Andrew O. Resmini marks the first time all three of Ronald J. Resmini's sons have held the distinction alongside their father in the same edition. The firm, which Ronald J. Resmini founded and now operates together with his three sons, has represented injury clients in Rhode Island and Massachusetts for more than five decades, handling matters from initial intake through resolution at trial or settlement.

"Being named alongside my sons for another year, with Andrew now joining us, speaks to the standard our whole family holds itself to on every case we handle," said Ronald J. Resmini, Founder at Law Offices of Ronald J. Resmini, Accident & Injury Lawyers, Ltd.

The firm represents clients in car accident, truck accident, motorcycle accident, slip-and-fall, medical malpractice, wrongful death, and workers' compensation matters throughout Rhode Island and Massachusetts. Attorneys at the firm handle claims from initial filing through trial, negotiate settlements with insurance carriers, and advise clients on their options at each stage of a case. The firm offers free consultations and manages cases on a contingency-fee basis, meaning clients pay no fee unless their case resolves in their favor. Attorneys with the firm are licensed to practice in both Rhode Island and Massachusetts and appear regularly in state courts across both jurisdictions.
