Tampa, FL - Kim Garst, groundbreaking social media consultant and Co-owner of Boom! Social, a business dedicated to helping clients learn social media tactics to enhance online business branding and promotion, was recently recognized by Blogtrentrepreneur.com as one of the "Top 23 Social Media Power Influencers" in the world. The award, bestowed upon a select group of international trendsetters and visionaries, named Garst as the 11th most influential individual in a list that also recognized world-renowned entrepreneurs such as Ashton Kutcher and Mark Cuban. When asked about this most recent achievement and recognition, Garst noted:

"I am beyond honored to have been recognized by Blogtrentrepreneur.com as a leading social media consultant and influencer. Blogtrentrepreneur has such an outstanding reputation in the social media industry; I am flattered and thrilled to have received this distinction amongst such an impressive list of recipients (<http://kimgarst.com/>)." Garst said.

In her award write-up on their site, Blogtrentrepreneur showcased how Garst stands out from the social media consultant pack, noting, "Kim Garst adds a personal touch to all of her business endeavors. It often feels like you're in a conversation with her directly. We could all learn a thing or two from her techniques." Garst's authentic ability to personally connect with her clients as she helps them, not only learn social media, but also implement effective techniques into their daily branding and marketing campaigns has always been a primary focus at her organization:

"At Boom! Social, our team of social media experts understand that not only can online branding feel daunting at first, but that every individual entrepreneur has his/her own particular business needs and objectives. We pride ourselves on partnering with our clients throughout the planning process to truly understand their specific visions and goals for a customized approach to how they learn social media for optimal campaign results," Garst said.

Blogtrentrepreneur's accolade is not the first time Garst has been recognized for her work in her field; the award-winning social media consultant and branding expert has received a lengthy list of distinctions, including being noted on Forbes Magazine's 2012 list of "To 50 Social Media Power Influencers."
