Royal Bahrain Concours Welcomes Back Behbehani Brothers for 2026, With an Expanded Portfolio

Behbehani Brothers renews its partnership with the Royal Bahrain Concours, returning with six marques along and some special appearances

BAHRAIN, BAHRAIN, September 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Royal Bahrain Concours is proud to announce the return of Behbehani Brothers W.L.L. as an Automotive Partner for its 2026 edition. Following its participation in the inaugural event in 2025, Behbehani Brothers returns to this year's Concours with an expanded portfolio and an even greater presence, showcasing its six core automotive brands: Porsche, Audi, Bentley, Lamborghini, Volkswagen and Škoda.

The renewed partnership was formalised at a signing ceremony on Monday 14 September, attended on behalf of Behbehani Brothers W.L.L. by Hussain Shirazi, Deputy Executive Director; Mohammed Janahi, Deputy General Manager; and David Williams, Head of Automotive.

Behbehani Brothers joined the inaugural Royal Bahrain Concours in 2025 as a Major Manufacturer Partner, representing four of its marques – Porsche, Audi, Bentley and Lamborghini – with a curated display of models from each brand, and support for the Porsche Club Bahrain and Lamborghini Club Bahrain throughout the event.

Visitors to this year's Concours can expect Behbehani Brothers to present its six core automotive brands - Porsche, Audi, Bentley, Lamborghini, Volkswagen and Škoda - complemented by some special additions to the showcase. The expanded display will reflect the scale and breadth of the Group's portfolio while introducing an element of surprise for guests across the two-day event.

Taking place at the Royal Golf Club in Riffa on Friday 6 to Saturday 7 November 2026, the Royal Bahrain Concours will once again bring together an exceptional line-up of motorcars across six classes for 2026 – Hypercars, Pre-1940s Cars, Supercars, American Heritage, European Heritage and British Heritage – alongside collectors, enthusiasts, luxury partners and international guests from across the region and beyond, building on an inaugural 2025 edition that welcomed 60 collector cars and more than 200 members' cars from leading car clubs across the GCC.

James Brooks-Ward, Chairman of the Royal Bahrain Concours, commented: "Following the early signing of our 2026 partnership agreement in January, it was a pleasure to come together with Behbehani Brothers W.L.L. for the signing ceremony and celebrate their continued support of the Royal Bahrain Concours. We look forward to welcoming the Behbehani Brothers team back to the Royal Golf Club on 6-7 November and continuing to build on our partnership for this year's event."

David Williams, Head of Automotive at Behbehani Brothers W.L.L., said: "Last year's Royal Bahrain Concours was a fantastic platform for our brands and a great showcase for our amazing automotive culture and the community of Bahrain. As the event expands in ambition and reach this year, so too does our presence. We are proud to return with our fully expanded portfolio, presenting our six core automotive brands alongside some special additions to celebrate 2026. Our larger showcase is an even stronger reflection of the scale and breadth of our business in Bahrain."
