With effect from 1st January 2013, insure4sport has been announced as the official insurance partner of the Angling Trust. The insure4sport partnership offers Angling Trust members cheaper, yet more comprehensive insurance, cutting the cost of combined membership subscription and insurance premium by at least 10% compared to 2012 prices. Moreover, all insure4sport policies are underwritten at Lloyds of London for that added piece of mind.

Mark Lloyd, Chief Executive of the Angling Trust commented "We are delighted to announce that we have appointed insure4sport as our insurance provider. We have carefully selected insure4sport for the excellent value and range of products that they can offer our members. In our opinion this cover is at least as good as our previous preferred package and by offering it as an automatic benefit of membership we have saved our members money. We are also very impressed by insure4sport's high standard of customer service."

John Woosey, Managing Director of insure4sport, is equally pleased with the new partnership. "We are excited to be working with the Angling Trust and delighted that they have chosen our specialist insurance policies for their members. No matter the size of the club, or how informal or organised it is, specialist insurance is vitally important for angling clubs, and our partnership with the Angling Trust confirms that."

For the last three years, the Angling Trust has offered members an optional liability insurance scheme via brokers Perkins Slade. The new insurance cover provided by insure4sport will be automatically in place as soon as the member club's existing liability insurance policy naturally expires on or after 1st January 2013 until their Angling Trust renewal is due in 2013. If any clubs have queries on the new partnership, they can visit www.insure4sport.co.uk/anglingtrust or call insure4sport's dedicated Angling Trust helpline on 0800 092 46 46.
