SWIVEL® and Tangenesis Partner to Integrate SWIVEL's Payment Technology into Weeve Delinquency Platform

SWIVEL and Tangenesis partner to integrate secure ACH and card payments into Weeve, streamlining delinquency management and improving borrower experiences.

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- SWIVEL, a subsidiary of SWBC and leading fintech innovator, is excited to announce a strategic partnership with Tangenesis, integrating SWIVEL's advanced payment processing into Weeve, Tangenesis's flagship delinquent loan payments platform. This collaboration aims to modernize delinquency management by delivering seamless, self-service payment options, including ACH and card.

"By integrating SWIVEL's flexible and secure payment infrastructure, Weeve now extends its mission to streamline and humanize collections," said David Miller, CEO & Founder of Tangenesis. "Borrowers gain convenience and transparency, while institutions reduce delinquencies and preserve borrower relationships."

Weeve, Tangenesis's powerful, all-in-one loan delinquency management solution, offers automated outreach, advanced analytics, and multichannel engagement to reduce delinquencies and improve borrower relations. By embedding SWIVEL's payment rails and secure risk controls directly within Weeve, borrowers can make payments when and how they choose, on mobile or web, empowering both institutions and borrowers through user-centric design and streamlined operations.

“By embedding SWIVEL's secure and flexible payment infrastructure into Weeve, we're extending our mission to simplify financial transactions and improve the borrower experience,” said Amanda Licona-Crocker, President of SWIVEL. “Together, we're helping financial institutions reduce friction in the repayment process while providing borrowers with greater convenience, transparency, and control.”
