The legal team at The Driscoll Firm is pleased to announce the addition of Jeff Schultz to its staff. Jeff is a graduate of the University of Chicago, where he earned his B.A. and M.A. in English Literature, and from Tulane University Law School, where he earned his J.D. Jeff has spent years in both public and private practice, clerking for judges in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois as well as representing private clients in a variety of litigation-related matters.

Jeff has practiced law in a range of different areas, including class actions, mass torts, and cases involving inter alia, consumer fraud, pharmaceutical and medical device products liability, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, and federal civil rights. Among Jeff's many successes can be included his role in Foradori v. Captain D's, Inc., in which he helped to secure a verdict of $21 million for an injured client, one of the largest verdicts ever recovered in the state of Mississippi.

The wealth of experience he has accumulated over the years will be an invaluable asset to Jeff in his new role as an attorney at The Driscoll Firm. On this latest move in his career, Jeff expressed considerable enthusiasm, saying, "I am very excited about the opportunity to work with lawyers of the caliber of those at The Driscoll Firm. They have an outstanding record of winning recoveries for injured patients." For what is sure to be a fruitful relationship, the entire legal team at The Driscoll Firm extends a heartfelt welcome to Jeff.
