Dave's Appliance and Home Earns HBA Member Choice Best Appliances Awards for 2023-2025

MARTINEZ, GA, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dave's Appliance and Home has received the Home Builders Association of the Greater Aiken-Augusta Region Member Choice Award for Best Appliances Indoor/Outdoor for 2023 and 2024, and the Member Choice Award for Best Appliances for 2025, through the association's Stellar Awards program presented with the Sales and Marketing Council.

David Barrett with three Home Builders Association of the Greater Aiken-Augusta Region Member Choice awards at the Martinez showroom.

The recognition covers three consecutive award cycles for the locally owned retailer, whose Martinez showroom at 368 Furys Ferry Road serves the Augusta-Aiken / CSRA market. At that location, builders, designers, and homeowners can view working Sub-Zero and Wolf displays and other luxury kitchen appliances in person. Dave's Appliance and Home is an authorized Sub-Zero and Wolf dealer and maintains a factory-trained Sub-Zero and Wolf installation team. The company also operates a second Georgia showroom in Statham at 1946 Railroad Street, where appliance shopping can be paired with custom woodworking through 1 of 1 Woodworker.

"My mom used to work in the exact same building when it was EarthFare. I grew up there and attended Riverside Middle School and Greenbrier High School. My father was stationed at Fort Gordon. It is truly an honor to receive these awards and it means the world to me. I hope we can continue to provide a great customer experience," said owner David Barrett.

The Home Builders Association of the Greater Aiken-Augusta Region is a nonprofit trade organization for the local home-building industry. Its Stellar Awards Member Choice categories are selected by association members. Dave's Appliance and Home is an association member and works with builders and trade professionals through its builder program in addition to retail customers at both showrooms.
