

InterFACE Client Signed to Def Jam Music Group Record Label

/EINPresswire.com/ InterFACE Client, Domonique, has been signed to C1-ICE Entertainment, a subsidiary of Island Def Jam music group.

Simply stated, Domonique has the makings of a true super star. Most of those who have come in contact with her have known that she has been destined for greatness. Her destiny began to find a place in reality after Domonique became a client of talent marketing company InterFACE.

Since joining InterFACE, Domonique was able to create a professional composite card and head shots by taking a state-of-the art photo shoot with InterFACE's experienced creative team. Soon after, her photos were marketed out to top industry professionals, and the industry quickly noticed Domonique's natural talent, and she was requested by 8A Productions to be featured in a music video for an upcoming boy band! Domonique soon began to forge relationships and create an industry buzz for herself that proved to be quite beneficial for the young teen. The 17 year-old's mother received a call from C-1 ICE Records, a recording company who showed interest in auditioning the young singer and actress.

C1-ICE Entertainment is located in Boca Raton, Florida and is a subsidiary of Island Def Jam Music Group. The entertainment company began under a friendship between two aspiring producers focused on creating a space for themselves in the music industry. Known for their shrewd eye in discovering and fostering new and impressive talent, it is no surprise the executives took an interest in the talented Domonique. After a stellar audition for the recording company, Domonique was signed to an exclusive contract for an artist development deal with C-1 Ice Records. Talk about an exciting year for this high school student! We look forward to see what this new year will bring for Domonique as she forges her path to success in the music industry. Congratulations to our talented client on her recent signing!
