

Screen Actors Guild Nominees Get Gifted and Give Back to Their Charity of Choice

/EINPresswire.com/ Jennifer Lawrence, Jessica Chastain, Hugh Jackman and other SAG Awards nominees will have their chance to give back to their favorite charities by tweeting @SwagGivesBack

The Shrine Auditorium will be the setting of the 19th Annual Screen Actor's Guild Awards this Sunday. However, prior to the show, the nominees will be receiving fantastic gift bags from Hollywood Swag Bag in the comfort of their hotel suites.

The Golden Globe Awards were an amazing chance for celebrities to Give Back with the help of Hollywood Swag Bag. Ariel Winter from Modern Family Gave Back to The American Cancer Society, Golden Globe winner David Gray also participated.

Giving back is easy, nominees snap an i-phone photo holding their gift bag & tweet it to @SwagGivesBack. In turn Hollywood Swag Bag donates to the charity of choice. "It is all about giving back", says VP of HSB Lisa Gal. "We want the celebrities to feel like they are doing good by being gifted."

The HSB gift bag includes BaByBliss Pro V2 Volare Luxury Hair Dryer, w8less and str8 products by Rusk, Prickly Pear Restoring Mist and Horsetail Root Lifting Spray by Nick Chavez Salon of Beverly Hills. Nominees will stay healthy with Quest Protein Bars, the junk-free protein bar trusted by celebrities and athletes worldwide. Other guilt free snacks include: Food Should Taste Good signature Sweet Potato Chips, Seasnax Seaweed Snacks, GoGo Squeez Apple Sauce on the Go and the most amazing gluten free, soy free, and dairy free truffles by Sweet Megan. Penta ultra-purified water will keep Jessica Chastain and Hugh Jackman hydrated.

Colonial Candles is offering all of the nominees gin & tonic scented candles from their cocktail
