

Divorce Rescue and Robert Widner Interviewing Parental Alienation Expert Dr. Richard Warshak

/EINPresswire.com/ Dr. Richard Warchak, one of the top authorities on divorce, child custody, and the psychology of alienating children will appear on the Divorce Rescue Radio Talk Show on Sunday, January 27, 2013 at 5pm CST along with Wendy Archer, Parental Alienation Advocate.

Dr. Richard Warshak, the internationally recognized custody expert and parental alienation will appear on the Divorce Rescue Radio Talk Show on Sunday, January 27, 2013, at 5 p.m. CST which (1) can be heard in Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas on local radio stations or (2) can be heard worldwide on any computer or mobile phone on iHeartRadiotradio.com, or (3) can be watched via live streaming media on USTREAM.tv.

Dr. Richard Warshak is the author of the classic guide to preventing and overcoming parental alienation "Divorce Poison."

Dr. Warshak is the author of the classic guide to preventing and overcoming parental alienation, "Divorce Poison." This best-selling, groundbreaking work gives parents powerful strategies to preserve and rebuild loving relationships with their children--and provides legal and mental health professionals who work with families in which there have been accusations of alienation, whether true or false, practical advice to help their clients and safeguard the welfare of children.

Dr. Richard Warshak's groundbreaking research, trenchant challenges to gender stereotypes, and passionate advocacy for children have made him one the world's most respected authorities on divorce, child custody, and the psychology of alienated children. As a White House consultant, and through his writing, speeches, legislative and courtroom testimony, videos, and workshops, Dr. Warshak has had a profound impact on the law and well-being of families where parents live apart from each other.

Dr. Warshak has examined assumptions and practices in family law in the light of logic and scientific data. His studies on father and mother custody, remarriage, relocation, parenting plans for young children, the approximation rule, children's preferences in custody disputes, and parental alienation appear in 13 books, more than 65 articles, and more than 100 presentations, and are cited often in the professional literature and in case law and legislatures throughout the world. His most recent work is a law review article analyzing judicial discretion, the best-interest standard, and alternative custody presumptions. Dr. Warshak has delivered keynote speeches throughout the U.S., in four Canadian provinces, in Germany, and in Israel.

Dr. Warshak was a White House consultant on child custody and one of 60 top experts invited to participate in an American Bar Association family law reform initiative. His amicus brief on relocation, endorsed by the leading authorities on divorce, was accepted by the Supreme Court of the State of California.

With parental alienation, your ex-spouse is bad mouthing you to your children, constantly portraying you in a negative light, perhaps even trying to turn them against you. If you handle the situation ineffectively, your relationship with your children could suffer. You could lose their respect, lose their affections-even, in extreme cases, and lose all contact with them. The conventional advice is to do nothing, that fighting fire with fire will only result in greater injury to the children.

But after years of consulting parents who heeded such advice with no success, Dr. Richard Warshak is convinced that this approach is wrong. It doesn't work, and parents are left feeling helpless and hopeless. Dr. Richard Warshak will offer a blueprint for effective response. In it, you will learn how to distinguish different types of criticism, how and why parents manipulate their children, how to detect these maneuvers, and how these practices damage children. Most importantly, you'll discover powerful strategies to preserve and rebuild loving relationships with your children.

If you are a child or parent facing the great pain, confusion and anger caused by parental alienation, or if you are feeling lost, hurt or helpless, prayers can be answered and there is hope.
