

Attorney Guy Seligman Helps Reinstate Driver's Licenses For 'Habitual Offenders'

/EINPresswire.com/ Seligman Launches Suspended License Hotline for Florida Drivers

Floridians with suspended or revoked driver's licenses due to the accumulation of violations and points (habitual traffic offenders) now have a place to turn in the hopes of legally getting back on the road. Fort Lauderdale attorney Guy Seligman has three decades of direct experience in helping clients get their suspended driver's licenses reinstated..

"If you have lost your drivers license there is a chance I can get it back for you," said Seligman. "There are circumstances that allow you to get your license reinstated, so you need to move fast. You do not want to get caught driving with a suspended license. These are serious charges."

If a client's license was suspended in the state of Florida for points, as a habitual traffic offender (non-DUI related), or by court order, The Law Offices of Guy Seligman's can help. One solution is a "hardship license," which allows one to drive to and from work (or to and from childcare) during the suspension period. Seligman suggests that anyone at risk of losing their license, or those with already suspended or revoked licenses contact his hot line at: 954/760-7600 covering: Miami, Fort Lauderdale, West Palm Beach, Orlando, Jacksonville, Tampa, and all of Florida. This new hotline is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays.

"People need to learn their rights and speak to an experienced suspended license attorney," said Seligman. "We cannot promise to help everyone, but we have a great track record. The sooner we meet to figure out what is going on, the sooner we can help you get back on the road to success."
