

Dedicated North Texas Real Estate Team Launches New Website

/EINPresswire.com/ The Blaser Yoakum Real Estate Agency Partners with Dallas Internet Marketing Company Advice Interactive Group to Launch New Home Buying Website

Southlake, TX – Dynamic real estate duo Brenda Blaser and Pam Yoakum have been finding dream homes for future and current North Texas residents since 1995. A growing list of families and investors recently prompted the Southlake realtors to seek a new look for their online presence, which led the team to Advice Interactive Group, an Internet marketing firm in Dallas. The two companies have collaborated to launch a brand new real estate website that will further develop the Blaser Yoakum brand online.

The Blaser Yoakum team is known for their dedicated service to families across the North Texas area. They are consistently recognized by their corporate broker, Keller Williams Realty, for excellence in sales and service. In fact, in both August and September 2011, the team was awarded the Keller Williams Million Dollar Award, which recognizes realtors able to close a total of $1 million in a single month.

The Blaser Yoakum team can be contacted at their main offices:

850 E. State Hwy 114 # 100
Southlake TX 76092
(817) 328-1128

The new real estate website features information about the cities and neighborhoods around Southlake, TX. Website visitors will be able to learn about school districts, average home prices, and various recreational activities unique to each area. Visitors can also glean useful information from the website's home buying and selling guides, which give tips to help homeowners get the best price for their properties. Best of all, the team's properties are searchable directly from the website, with options to choose specific neighborhoods, price ranges, and number of rooms.
