Property Management, Inc. Named PAA Central Region Property Management Company of the Year

Recognition highlights PMI's commitment to excellence across its residential portfolio and the dedication of its employee-owners.

PMI Employee-Owners Win Management Company Of The Year

HARRISBURG, PA, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Property Management, Inc. (PMI), a leading Pennsylvania property management company, has been named Central Region Property Management Company of the Year by the Pennsylvania Apartment Association (PAA). The honor was presented at the 2026 PAA Central and State College Keystone Awards, which recognize excellence among multifamily housing professionals and communities throughout the region.

The award represents a significant achievement for PMI and reflects the collective efforts of its leadership, onsite teams and employee co-owners who work every day to maintain high standards and deliver exceptional experiences for residents, property owners and communities.

"This award is the culmination of several years of hard work, dedication and commitment to excellence within our entire organization. As first-time winners, this award means so much to the teams who have remained steady through the changes within our residential division and have embraced the evolution of this organization," said Angela Unterbrink, PMI Senior Vice President and Residential Division Manager.

In addition to being named Central Region Property Management Company of the Year, PMI communities received multiple Exterior Excellence and Maintenance Excellence awards. These honors recognize the teams responsible for maintaining properties to a high standard and creating communities that residents, staff and owners can be proud of.

Individual PMI team members were also recognized for their contributions to the industry. Jordan Smith of Long Meadows received the Rookie of the Year award, recognizing his outstanding contributions early in his property management career.

“Being honored as Rookie of the Year is truly something I’m proud of. It’s been an amazing first step in this journey, and I’m excited to see what’s next in the coming years. I look forward to continuing to learn and grow,” said Smith, a PMI Maintenance Technician.

Darrin Morningwake, Supervisor of PMI’s internally managed communities, was named Maintenance Professional of the Year, recognizing his dedication to property maintenance, service and operational excellence.

Together, the company, property and individual awards highlight the work being done across PMI’s residential portfolio and the employees who contribute to the success of its communities every day.

Founded in 1967, Property Management, Inc. has provided professional property management services throughout Pennsylvania for nearly 60 years. PMI specializes in real estate management and serves a diverse portfolio spanning residential and commercial properties, manufactured housing communities and homeowners associations.
