Concierge Auctions: September Auction Line Up Ahead of Hong Kong Global Sale with US$140M in Marquee Properties

High-profile collection spanning nine US states and France comprises this month's auction lineup

Tuxedo Park, Hudson Valley, New York

Domaine de Ballerand

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Concierge Auctions presents more than US$140 million in luxury real estate across 13 coveted properties as part of its September auction lineup. The collection ranges from a private beachfront ranch on California's Padaro Lane and a historic 150-plus-acre estate in New York's Tuxedo Park to a 15th-century French château, a residence on Colorado's only private ski mountain, and waterfront estates across Florida, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin.

The majority of the auctions will culminate live on 29 September at 9 PM EST/30 September at 9 AM HKT from The Upper House in Hong Kong as part of Concierge Auctions' Hong Kong Global Sale, one of the firm's marquee international auction events where a curated collection of luxury properties is presented to buyers across Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and beyond. The event builds on the success of Concierge Auctions' 2025 Hong Kong sale, which achieved a 100% sell-through rate and generated more than $1.25 billion in aggregate bids across its offerings. The auction will be streamed live via the firms online marketplace, conciergeauctions.com

Hideaway Creek Cabin

“Our September lineup brings together a curated collection of exceptional real estate from around the world––from legacy estates and private mountain retreats to distinctive waterfront properties across the United States and Europe,” said Krystal Aeby, President of Concierge Auctions. “Throughout the month, buyers will have the opportunity to participate through our online marketplace, with many of the properties culminating in our Hong Kong Global Sale—one of the most anticipated sales of the year.”
