

Frisco-Based Orthopedic Medicine Professionals Launch New Services Website

/EINPresswire.com/ Performance Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine Partners with Internet Marketing Firm Advice Interactive Group to Redesign Online Presence

Frisco, TX – Attempting to manage orthopedic conditions and injuries with pain medication can only help so much. That’s why the team of medical professionals at Performance Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine has dedicated their practice to helping patients across north Texas improve their lives and stop their chronic pain. To better serve their patients, the clinic recently partnered with Dallas Internet marketing company Advice Interactive Group to launch a new medical website.

Performance Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine’s main goal is to help patients overcome their chronic pain. The team specializes in both orthopedic care and sports medicine, offering such services as diagnostic imaging, injections, and physical therapy to their patients. If a patient’s situation requires surgery, the team works with doctors and therapists to develop complete pre- and post-surgery rehabilitation plans so that the patient can return to their normal, active life as quickly and as efficiently as possible.

You can contact the team at Performance Orthopaedics’ main offices at:
Performance Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine
4461 Coit Road, Suite 301
Frisco, Texas 75035
(214) 705-6611

The new orthopedic services website features a brand new design that will help website visitors easily navigate between the information they need. Visitors can find detailed information about the various conditions the clinic sees, including shoulder, foot and ankle, and hip injuries. They can also learn about the various treatment methods used to remedy the pain associated with these injuries. The website also comes complete with a page dedicated to patient information services, where future and current patients can download, print, and fill out required paperwork before their appointment.
