Sofema Aviation Announces Immediate Availability of Online Emergency Response & Crisis Management Training Suite

SOFIA , BULGARIA, September 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sofema Aviation (SA) has announced the release of its specialized online training suite focused on Emergency Response Planning (ERP) and Crisis Management.

Specialized Online Emergency Response & Crisis Management Training Suite

Designed to enable aviation organizations to satisfy EASA regulatory requirements while maintaining full alignment with ICAO Standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs) and IATA Operational Safety Audit (IOSA/ISARP) standards, these online courses provide flexible, cost-effective preparedness for operators, directors, safety managers, and media personnel.

Key Advantages of the Training Suite

Regulatory Compliance & Alignment: Directly addresses EASA regulatory drivers, ICAO SARPs, and IATA IOSA/ISARP emergency response guidelines.
Operational Resilience: Helps organizations build structured Emergency Response Systems, execute risk assessments, and establish functional Crisis Control Centers and Go Teams.
Reputational Protection: Equips spokespersons and senior management to navigate hostile press, control social media narrative, and handle sensitive victim-privacy ethics during a crisis.
Flexible 24/7 Access: High-quality, self-paced virtual learning accessible globally via www.sofemaaviation.com.
Certified Verification: Every course includes a multiple-choice final examination leading to an official completion certificate upon scoring 70% or higher.
