

Help guests save the date in style, says Bride & Groom Direct

/EINPresswire.com/ UK (submitpressrelease123.com - press release) Why aim for pride of place on the mantelpiece with your wedding invitation, when you can hold out and go for the fridge?

Wedding accessories supplier Bride & Groom Direct is encouraging engaged couples to plan their big day in style and make sure their wedding date reminders stand out from the crowd. The firm has launched a huge range of 111 products to help ensure that couples' guests keep the date free, and that wedding days don't get forgotten.

Bride & Groom Direct has more than a 100 save the date cards to choose from, each of which sends a wonderfully personal message to family and friends who are invited to the big day. A single pair of red hearts on a plain white card can give a fantastically simple message, while more extravagant designs can be achieved with ornate patterns, ribbons and flowers.

For anyone who is not content with a place on top of the bookcase and wants to hold out for a prime spot on the fridge, save the date magnets are the only real choice. Capable of reminding guests every time they reach for the milk to make a hot drink, wedding fridge magnets are a surefire way to help keep the date free.

Mark Seekins, Managing Director at Bride & Groom Direct, said: "When you reach a certain age wedding invitations can start to come through thick and fast, so making sure yours stick out can be a challenge. And it's one that Bride & Groom Direct is more than willing to lend a hand with.

"We've got a fantastic range of save the date items that will ensure your wedding is the hot topic in the homes of your friends and family!"

Visit Bride & Groom Direct's online store to view the range of wedding invitations and save the date magnets that are available to buy now.
