

St Augustine FL Vacation Rental Management Companies Merge

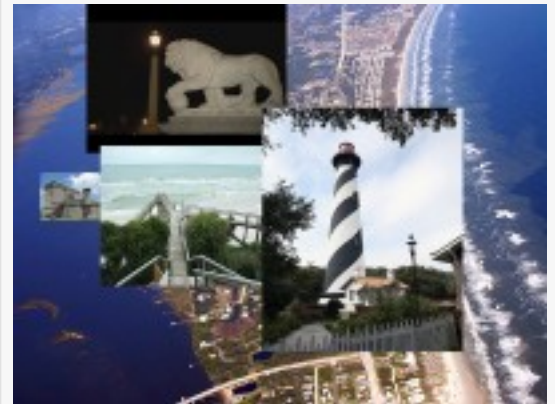

/EINPresswire.com/ Two well established Vacation Rental companies merge to provide greater service to visitors of St Augustine Beach. Coastal Realty & Property Management acquired Ocean Village Realty. The merger allowed staff of Ocean Village Realty to move to Coastal to provide continuity.

Coastal Realty & Property Management, Inc. of St. Augustine FL has acquired Ocean Village Realty. Both companies are long established Vacation Rental agencies. The owners of Ocean Village Realty have decided to pursue other interests. In making that decision they wanted to move their inventory to a company that would give their clients the same great service they were familiar with. As an added bonus the staff of Ocean Village Realty has moved to Coastal so the owners and guests will have continuity. Ocean Village Realty's inventory was made up of units in Ocean Village Club and Sea Place. The Ocean Village Realty website, <http://oceanvillagerealty.com> is still available. Guests can use that website or go to the main Coastal Realty & Property Management, Inc. website <http://coastalrealtyfl.com> to access the more than 500 rental properties listed on the site.

Coastal Realty is testing a mobile app at Ocean Village Club that can be downloaded from the Apple Store or the Google Play Store. The app is Go Coastal. This app gives the guests check in information and info about the area and a way to communicate to management. Other guests can download it as a guest to get the area info. As soon as Coastal is sure the app is working the way they want it to, it will be added to all other properties.

Coastal Realty & Property Management, Inc is a full service Property Management company established in 1993. In addition to vacation rentals, Coastal manages over 25 Community Associations and has two full time Real Estate Sales people on staff. St. Augustine is home to all of its team members and is proud of what it has to offer in the United States oldest city.

Founded in 1992, Coastal has one of the largest collections of St. Augustine vacation rentals and
