IT Governance announces February COBIT® 5 Foundation Course special offer

/EINPresswire.com/ IT Governance, the COBIT® 5 Accredited Training Organisation (ATO), has made the last few places on the February COBIT 5 Foundation course available at a special price of just under £630. The course which is delivered by an experienced ISACA-qualified trainer is considered one of the best COBIT® Foundation courses in the UK with delegates achieving high pass rates at the ISACA exam.

Previous delegates have described the COBIT® 5 Foundation course as "excellent" and "most useful course I've been on in years".

The COBIT® 5 Foundation course uses content with the permission of ISACA and includes in the final hour of the course the official COBIT® 5 Foundation exam from APMG that leads to the certificate. It is an interactive classroom-based training course based on the latest version, COBIT® 5.

The COBIT® 5 Foundation course carefully explains the elements of the COBIT® 5 framework using a case study and interactive presentations. It will help professionals build their knowledge and understanding of the COBIT® 5 guidance in order to be able to understand the governance and management of enterprise IT.

The course is particularly suitable for company directors, auditors, information security and IT practitioners, IT Consultants, IT managers, and those looking to be certified as either a COBIT® implementer or COBIT assessor.

The last few places on the February course can be booked immediately online at www.itgovernance.co.uk/shop/p-479.aspx at the special price of just under £630.
