WINDERMERE, FL, UNITED STATES, September 24, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Acclaimed singer-songwriter Jeff Willie Wilson is excited to announce the release of his highly anticipated tenth studio record, "One Beer Company," scheduled to hit shelves and digital platforms worldwide on September 29, 2026. This new record showcases Wilson's signature blend of thought-provoking lyrics and compelling melodies, continuing his tradition of addressing contemporary themes through the lens of personal storytelling.

The record's title track, "One Beer Company," captures the essence of modern life with its sharp social commentary and catchy hooks. The lyrics reflect on the monopolization of various aspects of society, from corporations to essential services, and the impact these changes have on everyday people and families. With lines like “Ruling the World, one soft drink at a time, fooling the world, you ran mom and pop out of town,” Wilson invites listeners to contemplate the realities of our consumer-driven culture.

Known for his soulful voice, Jeff Willie Wilson has released nine previous singles, including notable tracks like "Watching the Rumors Run" and "Changes Will Come." His engaging performances and relatable songwriting have garnered him a loyal following, and he continues to evolve as an artist, pushing boundaries and exploring new musical territories.

In "One Beer Company," Wilson addresses the social consequences of corporate dominance, emphasizing the need for community that we are losing in our towns today. He encourages listeners to reflect on the importance of supporting local businesses and fostering connections within their communities. The song serves as a reminder of the values that bring people together and the positive impact of nurturing relationships in our everyday lives. "One Beer Company" promises to be a powerful addition to Wilson's discography, reflecting both his growth as an artist and his commitment to addressing the pressing issues of our time. Fans can explore a mix of heartfelt ballads and upbeat tracks that will resonate with listeners from all walks of life.

The record will be available for pre-order starting September 23, 2026, and will be distributed across all major streaming platforms, as well as in physical formats.
