

Pistevo, Inc. and iDateUS.com Partner to Enhance Online Dating Safety with Background Search Technology

/EINPresswire.com/ The new Affiliate Marketing Alliance aims to enhance overall user experience and safety for iDateUS.com's 300,000+ members through Pistevo's reliable background search services

Orlando, FL (Submitpressrelease123.com - press release) Today Pistevo, Inc., an identity verification background search firm, signed an Affiliate Marketing Alliance Agreement with iDateUS.com, one of North America's leading online dating sites with over 300,000 members spanning the United States and Canada. As part of the agreement, Pistevo will give users of iDateUS' dating services access to background information on other members through their fast and comprehensive searches.

The safety of their online dating site's members is a top priority for iDateUS. Greg Tsurulnik, CEO of iDateUS.com, states, "We searched many identity verification reputation firms for a reliable, affordable and accurate solution to help our member's have a safer dating experience. After assessing numerous services we found Pistevo to be the best choice for our members."

Unlike other background screening services, Pistevo delivers immediate access to an individual's background information upon the search of over 600 million criminal and civil database records. Searches are priced at only $2.99 and do not require a registration fee or monthly membership fee. The company's background search services are simple to navigate and give users the option of smartphone, tablet or online accessibility. Pistevo is available as a free download for Android users in the Google Play store, in iTunes for the iPhone and iPad, as well as through the website www.MyPistevo.com.

Commenting on the newly formed alliance, Pistevo CEO Dr. Mark Songer states, "We are thrilled to work with iDateUS.com, a fast-growing innovative online dating company, to help their member's have a safer dating experience."

According to research done by The Inquisitr, as many as one out of ten online dating profiles provide untrue information. By offering the services of Pistevo to their members, iDateUS has increased the safety of their website for users who wish to vet-out potential matches prior to taking steps toward a relationship. The ability to create trusted connections, based on real background and reputation information, will help to increase the successful matches made on iDateUS.com.
